

PULPIT CHANGES IN LYNCHBURG

Prominent Methodist Ministers Who Have Served Out Limit of Conference Term.

MOVEMENT TO KEEP DR. BUTTS

The Fall Term of the United States District Court To-Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., September 10.—Although the date for the assembling of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church is more than two months in the future, considerable interest already attaches to the meeting of that body in Lynchburg, on account of the fact that it is the first time since the death of Dr. J. C. Butt, who served as president of the conference for two years, that the same will be given different work at the next meeting.

It is not known, of course, who will succeed to the position of Dr. Butt, but it is known that the general feeling is in favor of Dr. Butt, who has been a prominent worker for four years.

DOCTOR CURED OF ECZEMA

Maryland Physician Cures Himself of Eczema with Cuticura Remedies. Prescribes Them and Has Cured Many Cases Where Other Formulas Have Failed—Dr. Fisher Says:

CUTICURA REMEDIES POSSESS TRUE MERIT

"My face was afflicted with eczema in the year 1897. I used the Cuticura Remedies, and was entirely cured. I am a practicing physician and very often prescribe Cuticura Remedies and Cuticura Soap in cases of eczema, and they have cured where other formulas have failed. I am not in the habit of endorsing patent medicines, but when I find remedies possessing true merit, such as the Cuticura Remedies, I am broad-minded enough to proclaim their virtues to the world. I have been practicing medicine for sixteen years, and must say I find your Remedies A No. 1. You are at liberty to publish this letter, or any part of it. I remain, very truly yours, G. M. Fisher, M. D., Big Pool, Md., May 24, 1905."

CUTICURA—THE SET, $1. Complete Treatment for Every Humor from Pimples to Scrofula

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle; dry, then rub in Cuticura Ointment, to soothe, itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take Cuticura Resolvent Pills to cool and cleanse the blood. A single set, costing but one dollar, is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, and weepy skin, scalp, and blood humors, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, when all else fails.

Cuticura Soap, 25c; Ointment, 25c; Resolvent Pills, 25c. Total, 75c. Sent by mail, 10c extra. Free literature. Write to J. C. Fisher, M. D., Big Pool, Md., for free literature.

THE FILIPINOS ON THE WAR PATH

Many Students of the Islands in This Country Engaged for the Exposition.

TO AVERT A LYNCHING

A Negro Hushed From Princess Anne to the Norfolk Jail.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., September 10.—The Philippine Village will be on "War-path" at the Jamestown Exposition. The concession for this attraction has been granted by the Department of Colonies and Admissions to Sargent & Sutherland, who promise to make it the most attractive and complete scene of life in the Philippines ever exhibited in the United States.

When William H. Tatt, Secretary of War, was Governor of the Philippine Islands, Mr. Sutherland was his secretary. He brought 150 Filipinos to the United States for the purpose of showing them to the people, and they will have the opportunity to do so at the exposition.

The Philippine Village was first seen in this country at the St. Louis Exposition, and attracted much of the attention of the millions.

Seven concessions for restaurants at the Jamestown Exposition have just been granted. At three of these restaurants, food is to be served. At another, the cooking is to be done by electricity.

To avert a threatened lynching in Princess Anne county, John Smith, a negro, was hauled to the Norfolk city jail this afternoon. He is charged with the murder of a white man.

Smith was taken to the county jail and locked up. It became known through the press that Smith had been captured, and at once three negroes threatened a lynching, and as the three did not withdraw their threats, Smith was hauled to the Norfolk city jail.

FELL FROM TRAIN ON TO A TRESTLE

Remarkable Escape From Death of M. A. Griffin, of North Carolina.

TO GO TO GETTYSBURG

Monthly Meeting of the Baptist Sunday School Association.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, Va., September 10.—M. A. Griffin, of North Carolina, fell from a moving Seaboard Air Line Railway train on a trestle near this city about 11 o'clock last night, and, though painfully hurt, escaped serious injuries.

Griffin was at once brought to the Home for the Sick here, where he was attended by Dr. John Mann, the local Seaboard Air Line surgeon. He is reported to be resting comfortably to-day.

Several well-known white clergymen of various denominations will preach at the first anniversary service of the Central Presbyterian Church (colored) during this week. The services began Sunday evening, and will be held nightly until next Sunday. Rev. J. G. Harris is pastor of the church.

A good program, well rendered by the children, and an excellent address by Rev. J. R. Whit, pastor of Washington Street Methodist Church, were the features of the monthly meeting of the Baptist Sunday-school Association of Petersburg and vicinity at the West End Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. Reports for the month of August were submitted from seven churches. Vice-President J. L. Hawkins presided.

Mr. Charles Fowles went to Philadelphia today to attend the National Association of Stationery Editors as a representative from the Petersburg branch.

The Petersburg delegation to the reunion of Blue and Gray veterans on the field of Gettysburg will leave for that city on Sunday. The delegation is headed by Charles A. Clark, the well-known local historical guide.
